FEES AND PAMENT INFORMATION

Co-Channel User Report Fee: $75

EWA will provide a listing of all adjacent and co-channel licensees within 120 Kms (75 miles) of your transmitting locations coordinates. The report will include the frequency, licensee name, call sign, coordinates and distance in kilometers from your site. You can use this report to assist you in determining your source of interference. To obtain additional information about a licensee on the report you can access the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Universal Licensing System (ULS) website through this link. <http://wireless.fcc.gov/uls/index.htm?job=home>

Interference Mediation Fee: $495

EWA will assist you in resolving your interference problem if you know the source of your interference but cannot come to an agreement on resolving the problem. EWA will review the information that you have obtained concerning the interference and the actions you have taken to identify. We will then contact the interferer on your behalf and work with both parties to determine an appropriate course of action to settle the dispute.

When you cannot identify the licensee or system causing you interference EWA will complete a review of this form and contact you to discuss the interference. EWA will then do a review of the licensees within your operating area to determine a possible source. When the source has been determined EWA will contact you to advise you and to provide you with a course of action to assist you in ending the interference.

When a condition exists when both parties cannot come to agreement through EWA mediation or EWA determines that the interference is from an unknown source this report will be forwarded to the FCC Enforcement Bureau.
